

Business Personal Property generally consisting of office furniture and fixtures, machinery and equipment, computers, etc. is subject to taxation in the State of Michigan. Normal household furnishings are specifically exempted from personal property taxation.

Owners of assessable personal property are required to file a personal property statement on or before February 20th of each year.

Contact the Assessor's Office should you have questions about assessable personal property.